

Nick Hadim

Founder/ President

With a discerning eye for detail, hands-on creativeskills, and a sixth sense for emerging real estatecultural trends, Hadim brings entrepreneurial instinct, immeasurable drive, and considerable business experience to his role as founder and president of Nick Hadim Group of Companies.

Hadim's background in Creative Real Estate design and construction development has proved to be an invaluable asset for the finely-tuned reputation he has created for Nick Hadim Group of Companies, its divisions, and individual companies within.

Hadim received a Bachelor of Arts in Industrial Design from Art Center College of Design.

Hadim was the founder and creator of midtown Artist District in early 2000 with a vision to create Artist studios in the heart of Los Angeles catering the Artist's every prerequisite. Numerous Artists took an interest in the Midtown Artist District of Los Angeles moving from Venice, Santa Monica, Hollywood, and various other communities once they realized what was being offered in the new, Midtown Artist District.

Today Hadim is the youngest executive of one of the "Top 100" Southern California firms by the Los Angeles review and was named among "The Influentials" by the city of Los Angeles. He has also been featured and quoted in the Los Angeles Times, Newsweek, People, and Fortune. Born in June of 1976, he was raised in Los Angeles and currently resides in Brentwood

Skills

Licensed California Real Estate Broker
Licensed California General Contractor
Bachelor of Arts in Industrial Design
Certified Architectural Designer

Publications

2014 - People
2013 - Fortune
2012 - Los Angeles Times
2011 - Downtown LA News
2010 - Newsweek

